Technology

Service

Maintaining the highest standards means not only luxury, but excellent field performance, supported by professionals in the back office outfitted with cutting edge technology, strategic resources, progressive training & maintenance programs. We continually search for better efficiencies, systems, processes and support relationships to enable us to provide more competitive service to our customers.

Professional

Pride in Operations

Commitment To Excellence

Confidence and trust are not easily earned in any business. We take our reputation and the needs of our customers very seriously. At SLS, image, attitude, customer service, safety training and delivering beyond expectations are all primary focal points.

Our top-of-the-line vehicles are diligently maintained & our chauffeurs are carefully screened and trained in safety, standards, approach and, most importantly, customer service. SLS "raises the bar" with more professionalism, and customization of service.

Worldwide Network

SLS is the leader in worldwide ground transportation. Years of development and numerous global clients have resulted in an affiliate network so established and standardized that the service is seamless to the end customer. SLS can also customize national single-rate plans for volume clients with regular travel.

"You get one-stop shopping at SLS."

Discretion & Confidentiality

SLS has transported hundreds of VIPs from the arts, entertainment industry, corporate America, the medical field and political arenas. We understand the necessity for discretion and confidentiality and train our staff to both recognize and support the privacy of our customers.

THE STANDARDS:

Chauffeurs

SLS chauffeurs are both skilled and talented, employed on the basis of qualification, experience, appearance, communication skills, and knowledge of the city, suburbs and rural streets. Subtle attire and a professional appearance is a policy at SLS. All chauffeurs safe, conscientious, pleasant and tactful. They are not only well trained, experienced and tested regularly, but they excel in the duties and responsibilities of the most trusted chauffeurs.

Experience

SLS has been in business for many years and maintains a substantial fleet in several U.S. cities. With over 450 world-wide affiliates, SLS is able to quickly handle ground transportation needs in most populated areas of the world. With offices in Los Angeles, New York and Chicago, SLS is perfectly positioned near entertainment industry corporate centers. Our reputation as the most professional transportation company has earned SLS companies the privilege to serve many large corporations, productions studios and entertainment companies, networks, and celebrity, sports and political figures.

Special Services

Professionally printed signs are utilized at airports with the passenger's name. Chauffeurs typically meet the passenger in baggage claim, unless curbside service is requested. Greeters are also available to meet passengers and take them to a waiting car.

Reservations

Offices are open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. SLS utilizes fully computerized telephone reservation systems. All systems offer a confirmation number to ensure ease in identification and accounting accuracy. SLS companies accept all major credit cards. Rates are competitive & consistent with local area pricing structures.

Licensing & Safety

SLS and its companies are fully licensed and insured. Maintenance, upkeep, inspections, training and substance abuse testing and programs are all standard and routine at SLS.

SLS offers the following vehicles to serve your every need:

Sedans (typically Lincoln Towncars)

6, 8 & 10 passenger stretch limousines

Luxury SUVs

49+ passenger motorcoaches

Luxury sedans (typically Mercedes)

Passenger & cargo vans
